

Sinclair Broadcasting should be stopped
immediately from forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary, days
before the election
November 2, 2004.

This is an example
of scandalous
partisan politicking
through the use of
free public
airwaves. It shows the desperation of supporters of George W. Bush when they need to exploit the FCC rules in order to showcase their propaganda and
remove attention
from their lack of solutions to the many problems faced by America.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. The immediate problem is to stop this action
by Sinclair Broadcasting. An additional policy
action that the FCC
should take is to reform the license
renewal process to involve more than a
returned postcard.
Thank you.

Sincerely,
Dr. Beth E. Molnar
